TIME IN SCHOOL IS TWO-THIRDS LOST

MISS ETHEL LATHROP ANALYZES RURAL CLASSES' WORK.

FACULTY METHODS USED

Typical Pupil Recites 57 Minutes, She Says, Studies 37, and Wastes 208.

"Rural schools should be rich in agricultural content, health instruction, and general culture," said Miss Ethel Lathrop, of the United States Bureau of Education, in an address to the student body at the State Teachers College this morning.

Miss Lathrop was introduced by President Richardson as one who has attended rural schools, taught in rural schools and lived on a farm.

In response she said that she had listened to talks and speeches for a week in Des Moines and knew how tiresome they sometimes became so she was not going to give an address, but was going to tell a story, the subject being, "How Harvey spent a day at Denny's corner."

Harvey was a boy of thirteen who went to a rural school. He was in the sixth grade and was a typical student. Miss Lathrop's orders were to watch Harvey and make a list of all of the things that he did in one day at school. The purpose was to find out what is wrong with the system of teaching in the rural schools of the country.

"There are 320 minutes in the school day," Miss Lathrop said. "This is how Harvey spent those minutes. He studied 37 minutes, recited 57 minutes, ran errands one minute, was absent from the room 17 minutes and loafed 208 minutes. The time that he spent in

REPORTS FROM HARMONY FARMS SHOW GREAT DESTRUCTION

GATHER STONES FOR ICE

After Two Days of Melting, One Drift Was Still a Foot Deep Yesterday.

Damage to the crops in the Harmony neighborhood from the furious hail storm Wednesday afternoon can be measured only in thousands of dollars, according to more complete reports of the destruction. Whole fields of corn will be a total loss, oats were stripped, meadows and pastures beaten into the ground and chickens killed.

On a trip over the affected district yesterday, two days after the storm, hail stones were still seen drifted a foot deep in one creek bed. Even then, two or three wagon loads of the hail stones could have been gathered. The stones, after thirty- six hours of melting under a broiling hot sun, were still between one and two inches in diameter. When they first fell, many were larger than door knobs.

The hail zone started about a half mile northeast of Harmony Church and extended on toward Sheridan and Parnell. The belt was less than a mile wide at its start, widening as the storm progressed. It was most destructive in the narrower part of the belt, though serious damage was done over a wide area.

Some of the corn on the farms of the Rev. C. R. Green, Mark Heflin, H. C. Martin, the Wilcox brothers and others was a total loss. The hail beat off all the leaves, leaving only the stubs sticking up. Meadows and oats were beaten off, fully two-thirds of the oats being knocked off. Alfalfa was also beaten down.

Men caught out in the storm had their backs pelted until they were black and blue. Buford Heflin and one of the Wilcox brothers were struck on the head, blood running freely from the cuts.

The storm lasted only about twenty minutes. Many of the farmers came out after its close and all during the next day to gather the hail stones in buckets, using them to freeze ice cream and to take the place of ice.

Stock caught out in the storm were pelted so badly they were stiff all the next day and could hardly get around. Practically all the windows exposed to the storm were broken. It came from the southwest.

The farmers whose crops were ruined by the hail are now planting suden grass and soybeans.

HELEN MILLER IS NEW CHAMP IN GIRL'S TENNIS

Defeats Gladys Bookman in Finals of College Tournament—Boys to Play for Trophy

Helen Miller won the girls singles tournament at the College by defeating Gladys Bookman in the finals last night. The score was 6-4 4-6 6-0. The sets were all fast. Both girls were about even on the serve, but Miss Miller moved faster and placed many returns where Miss Bookman was unable to reach them.

The first set was perhaps the fastest. Both players were fresh and good tennis was played. In the second, Miss Miller slackened a bit and her opponent took advantage of the opening and won the set. In the third set, Miss Miller came back with lots of pep and won with ease. However, three games in the last set went to deuce several times.

Two tournaments will start next Monday. There will be a boys singles tourney and a medley tourney.

In the boys tournament an entrance fee of twenty-five cents is charged and the money will go to buy a championship award. The best players in the school will compete in this series of matches, and as yet it is hard to say who will be the winner. There are several players who have shown up exceedingly well this year. Among them are Bebout, Bland, Mapel, Wells and Williams. Probably one of these will win out in the finals, but there will be a race all the way. About twenty men are expected to enter, according to Coach Rice, who is promoting the tournament.

In the medley tourney both boys and girls are entered and will play against each other all the way through.

RED CROSS SEEKS NEW ROOMS FOR COMING YEAR

Return of Dr. F. R. Anthony Will Make Hunt for New Quarters Necessary

The board of directors of the Nodaway County Chapter of the American Red Cross discussed the selection of a new home for the coming year at their regular meeting Thursday night. The rooms which they have at present on North Main street must be vacated September 1 because Dr. F. R. Anthony will return to his work with Dr. R. C. Person at that time, and they will occupy the two rooms of the building which are now occupied by the Red Cross.

It is difficult to select rooms for the Red Cross because of the heating problem in the winter. The rooms must have a heating system which will keep the rooms very warm because of the baby clinics which will be held there every Friday afternoon. An outer office is essential, too because of the number of strangers which call upon the Red Cross every month.

SHERIDAN BOY ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF DESERTION

Raymond A. Lewis is Taken to Fort Leavenworth For Trial by Court Martial.

Sheriff S. N. Barber and Nightwatchman, D. D. Hull of Sheridan arrested Raymond A. Lewis of near Sheridan at the home of his mother Thursday of last week on a charge by the U. S. Government of desertion from the U. S. Army on May 10, 1921, from Camp Meade Maryland.

The charge states that Lewis enlisted at Camp Funston on January 29th, 1919. His trial by court martial will be held in about 10 days at Fort Leavenworth.

He was held over Thursday night in the jail at the court house in Grant City and taken Friday by Sheriff Barber and his daughter, Deputy Ona Barber, to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he will be detained in the federal prison until his trial at which Sheriff Barber will be a witness.

TIME CHANGES ON GREAT WESTERN WORK HARDSHIP

Stops Between Blockton and St. Joseph are Eliminated and Trip Must be Made by Motor.

Towns between Blockton, Iowa, and St. Joseph, on the Chicago and Great Western Railroad, have been inconvenienced to no small degree by making through trains of Number 1 and Number 2 from Des Moines to St. Joseph. These trains now only make stops between these two points, at the three junction points of Afton Junction, Diagonal and Conception Junction.

Because the business men from the towns south of Maloy go to St. Joseph and Kansas City for most of their business, this change in time will work a hardship on them. Under present conditions there can be but little travel south of Blockton except by motor car. There is a motor car that runs from Conception Junction to St. Joseph each morning, but this does not help those stations farther north.

One example of the inconvenience which the towns are put in the way of mails by the new change of schedule was seen at Parnell when Kansas City and St. Joseph newspaper were thrown off train Number 2 in such a manner that the Kansas City Post was rolled back under the train and cut in two and made useless. The St. Joseph News-Press was carried past and returned the next day.

A petition will be circulated next week to have the schedule changed and have trains Number 1 and 2 stop at Ravenwood, Parnell, Sheridan and other points between Blockton and St. Joseph.

Parnell may be taken as an example of how the people are hampered by the new schedule. By the old schedule, persons who had business south could go as far as St. Joseph and return on Number 2 the same day or those who wanted to go only a few stations south could go on Number 1 and return on Number 54, or on number 2. As it is now they must go on train Number 3, due there at 3:10 o'clock in the morning, and return number 54, due at 1:10 in the afternoon or go on train Number 5, due at 3:23 o'clock in the afternoon, and return on train Number 4, due at 3:30 o'clock in the morning.

Men's Class picture of the Christian church will not be shown Sunday evening as stated elsewhere in this issue. Will not be finished in time. Shown later.

HYDE WOULD LIMIT COLLECTOR SALARY

RECOMMENDS MAXIMUM OF $3,500 FOR YEAR

NODAWAY NOT AFFECTED

This County is Under Township Organization and Salaries Will Not Exceed that Amount

Governor Hyde's recommendation to the special session of the general assembly that a maximum salary of $3,500 to be fied for county collectors on a fee basis will not affect Nodaway County to any great extent in the opinion of G. H. Westfall, circuit clerk. Nodaway county is under the township organization plan and the law which was enacted at the last session of the legislature and approved March 1921, put the collectors of the townships on a sliding scale basis. For the first $40,000 collected they get a commission of two and one-half per cent; for the second $40,000, they can collect a commission of one per cent; and for all above the second $40,000 that they collect they get a three-fourths of one per cent commission.

Under this plan of payment none of the township collectors in Nodaway County will receive a salary exceeding $3,500. Before this law was enacted in 1921, the collectors reecived a commission of two and one-half per cent on all that they collected, and it is possible that if this had continued in force the collector of Polk township would have received a salary over the maximum recommended by the Governor.

Governor Hyde has gathered information showing that there are seventy counties in the state in which collectors this year will be paid in excess of $3,500., and fifty-two counties where they will be paid more than $4,500, while in a few counties they will earn on the present valuation from $10,000 to $11,000 a year.

It is estimated that the maximum salary for county collectors suggested by the Governor would save the counties approximately $150,000 annually.

ATTENDS LAST MEETING OF OLD BOARD OF MANAGERS

W. C. Pierce Helps to Turn Over State Hospital No. 2 to Consolidated Board.

W. C. Pierce of Maryville who was appointed a member of the new board of control to take charge of the six eleemosynary institutions of the state attended the final meeting of the old board of managers of State Hospital Number Two at St. Joseph, which met there yesterday and closed up its business to June 19 when it automatically went out of existance.

One of the first actions of the new board was to ask the house appropriations committee to recommend a bill to the legislature permitting the lumping of all appropriations for buildings and repairs at the institutions. The bills as passed at the regular session, specified how and where the mony should be spent.

THERMOMETER REGISTERS 96 DEGREES AT 10 O'CLOCK

One Other Day was as Hot But Not So Early—Last Night a Scorcher, Too.

Today is the year's hottest day. The mercury stood at ninety-six degrees at 1 o'clock. On one other day the thermometer reached this height in the afternoon, but it has not been this high at noon any other time this summer.

Many people have spoken of last night being the hottest night that we have had but it was not so hot last night as it was the night of June 19, when the thermometer registered 71 degrees. Last night it was 69 degrees. Perhaps the absence of any breeze made it appear warmer than it really was.

MEN PREPARE TO INVADE CLARINDA

VICTORS IN CONTEST TO PLAN TRIP TOMORROW

IOWANS GOOD LOSERS

Will Throw Open Lake Crabill Park to Visitors—Transportation Provided For All

Definite announcement of plans for the invasion of Clarinda, Ia., Tuesday, by the members of the Men's Bible Class of the First Christian church, winners in the contest which ended last Sunday, will be made at the meeting of the class tomorrow morning.

The committee on transportation, composed of F. C. Newlon, chairman, Ellis G. Cook and Howard Strong, will report the number of cars that will be available for the trip. Another committee, composed of Fred Miller, chairman, Harry Lyle, M. A. Hahn, A. L. Nash and Henry Westfall, will take the names of all members of the class or visitors of last Sunday who wish to take the outing.

The band from the Men's Class will play again tomorrow morning. The class period will be devoted to an "experience" meeting, with several short volunteer speeches telling of the good results of the campaign and last Sunday's gathering.

It is expected that almost a hundred cars will be in line when the start for Clarinda is made Tuesday. They will leave the tent about 1 o'clock. Those from outside of Maryville who intend or wish to make the trip either with or without cars, should notify the committee and come to the tent for the start.

The men from outside Maryville should be here by noon, the committee urges. The transportation committee will have charge of cars and the forming of the procession. Those from the west side of the county need not come to Maryville, but can meet at Clearmont or Braddyville. The cars from other county towns will not go as individual delegations, but will all join as one big delegation from the Men's Bible Class. If there is more than one band, they will be combined into one organization.

In a letter to the Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, the superintendent of the Clarinda Sunday school says:

"We have the lake and park and are trying to arrange with the park board for the entire equipment of boats, about forty in number. As for program, we are endeavoring to make the best of it. We have invited the pastors, superintendents and teachers of men's classes of four adjoining counties, and the men's classes, teachers and pastors of the other churches in the city.

"A complete report of the plan of organization and how you went out and got those men should be given, as the fellow who has never tried it does not know how it was done. We hope at least to have our outside guests to get the report.

"There will be a ball game between

RALPH ROAD BILL MUCH DISCUSSED

BI-PARTISAN COMMISSION TO DESIGNATE ROUTES

EACH COUNTY REACHED

Bill Embraces Same Principles as Favored by Missouri Farm-Bureau Federation

Jefferson City, July 9—The Ralph road bill in the senate is coming in for much discussion. The bill provides for a 6,000 mile state wide connected system of hard surfaced highways, extending into each county in the state, the routes to be designated by a bi-partisan highway commission of four members, to be appointed by the governor. It embraces practically the same principles as favored by the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation.

The State highway commission would be empowered to lay out the system of highways, utilizing any roads already constructed or being constructed that they see fit or is practicable, and to supervise the work of construction and maintenance of the system. The decisions of the commission affecting the work and rules and regulations regarding the work would be final, under the bill.

Width of Right of Way.

The bill provides that the roads shall have a right of way of not less than 50 feet and as much wider as the commission engineer shall deem necessary.

Whenever one of the state highways runs through or into a civil sub-division over a road that has been constructed by the sub-division in conjunction with the state and federal government or by the sub-division alone, and is accepted by the commission as a state highway, the commission shall utilize and take over the road as a part of the state system. The value of the road taken over would be determined and the amount of money equivalent to such value would be used in the improvement of roads connecting with the state system, the roads to be selected by agreement between the civil sub-division and the highway commission, and the work to be supervised by the commission.

Better Type of Road.

Should any civil sub-division desire a road of higher type than that designated by the commission, and shall secure to the state, in a manner prescribed by the commission, the additional cost of the higher type of road, the road shall be constructed according to the wishes of the sub-division, under the supervision of the highway commission.

The bill also provides that work shall start in at least twenty points in the state and on a stretch of road not less than ten miles in length, at as near the same time as practicable.

The companion bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Ralph, repeals old laws relating to the state highway department and creates a State highway commission, to be bi-partisan and to be appointed by the governor. The state geologist would be made an ex-officio member of the commission to act in an advisory capacity.

The first commission would be appointed for terms of different lengths—one for a term of two years, one for four years, one for six years and the other for eight years. Upon expiration of the terms of the first members, the succeeding members would be appointed for a term of six years which would be the length of the terms thereafter. The commissioners would receive $10 a day for the time spent in performance of their official duties. The commission would be empowered to appoint and employ and fix the compensation of its employees and would have complete supervision of highways constructed

GUILFORD ITEMS.

There were about sixty Guilford people present at the big Bible Class in Maryville last Sunday. They all report a fine time, and say that Maryville covered herself with glory in furnishing eats for the large crowd.

There is considerable talk of the boom in building in Guilford but as yet nothing has materialized. Various parties have for some time been seeking an outlet for building but with no success.

Steps have been taken to incorporate the Elevator Association. At their annual meeting a committee was appointed for the purpose of having it incorporated. The same set of officers were elected at this meeting.

On the evening of July 1, several of the citizens of Guilford met at the Airdome and proceded to select a committee to have general oversight of the Chautauqua which will be here August 5, 6, 7.

The general committee as it now stands organized is composed of the following: Carl Wray, chairman, M. S. Noland, vice-chairman, Arthur Thompson, secretary, W. B. Torrance, treasurer, and S. F. Jobe.

The chairman of the sub-committees are: Arthur Thompson, chairman of the ticket committee, S. E. Jobe, chairman of seating and grounds committee, W. B. Torrance, chairman of advertising committee, Carl Wray, chairman of entertainment committee, and M. C. Noland, chairman of light, piano and concessions committee.

The chairman of the sub-committee will chose their helpers.

HOPKINS JOUNAL

Arch Wolverton, who now resides on or near the creek called Honey, was in Hopkins last Friday and reports a new method of making home brew. Now, do not misunderstand us, Arch is a temperance man and does not make or use home brew himself, but has heard his neighbors telling how it can be done. According to his information an inexpensive way is to put a quart of shelled corn into a copper tea kettle, then fill the vessel with water. When it comes to a boil place a sponge or heavy towel over the spout to absorb the steam. Squeeze into a bottle the contents of the sponge or towel, and you will have a concoction warranted to knock 'em off the Christmas tree quicker than any of the old time Missouri corn-rod rot gut.

Sam Stringer was very painfully bruised and burned about the face and head Saturday evening when one of those pesky little "fire crackers" went off before it had any business to. Sam was trying to confine the "cracker" in a glass fruit jar. The jar was blown to atoms and Sam was lucky not to lose his eyes.

Ross Albright had a rather thrilling experience one day last week while driving a spirited team hitched to a top buggy. When at the west end of Hopkins, the team became frightened at cattle under the bridge and quicker than you can say "scat," the team buggy and man were at the bottom of the big river ditch and for awhile it seemed the result would be serious as Ross was "pinned in" making it impossible to do much towards managing the frightened steeds. He finally managed to release himself and succeeded in quieting the horses. The buggy was pretty well demolished but Ross and the team escaped without serious injury.

Contractor Alf Owens and men commenced the work of remodeling the Charles Gray residence today. It will be made full two stories with basement. A furnace will be installed and water will be supplied all parts of the house. The sleeping porch will be on the south.

The churches of Hopkins have decided to hold out doors union services during the hot weather and the first service will be held next Sunday night on the lawn of the Presbyterian church. Everybody invited.

Quite a number of cars from Gaynor went to Maryville Sunday. The ladies and children were invited to the court house and into the court room to hear the Sunday School lesson explained and children were seated. The dinner that was served in the park proves that Maryville is not always wanting something for nothing. The eats could not have been better.

A double header ball game will be played next Sunday afternoon on the Tillman Hensley grounds, 4 miles notheast of Hopkins—Unity vs. Prairie Flower, and Hazel Dell vs. Valley. There will be a stand on the grounds and a good time as well as good games is promised all wo attend. The admission to the grounds is free. A big crowd is expected.

The Bedford ball team is coming to Hopkins next Sunday afternoon to play the local team, the game being under the auspices of the American Legion Post. Bedford has a good team while the team here is in the best of form and a lively contest is anticipated. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Late word from Rochester, announces that W. C. Morehouse, of this city, is not so well. He has not yet been operated on and will not be until he gets stronger.

Arthur Wray, ex-recorder of Nodaway county, walked up from Maryville last Monday and told the Journal, he expected to walk from Maryville to his new home at Ava, Texas, the hike being made for the benefit of his health.

Prof. C. A. Hawkins, who still has many old friends in this city, having been superintendent of our schools some twenty or more years ago, was in Hopkins the 4th and expressed himself as well pleased with the program.

Curtis Wray, now the representative of a big auditing company, spent the 4th with relatives in this city. His home is in Chicago, but he is on the road most of the time, auditing the lists of the big newspapers of the country.

(The Democrat-Forum is one of the "big newspapers" whose subscription lists Mr. Wray audits.)

An air ship was sighted going over "lucious fruit", for nearly two weeks day headed north. The ship had probably been to St. Joe for booze, is being said it is sold there about the same as before the prohibition law was passed.

Dr. Maxwell reports a 4th of July boy in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Roberts.

Frod B. Monroe of the Bank of Hopkins, is the first Hopkins man to report having ripe tomatoes from is garden, having been feasting on the "lucions fruit." for nearly two weeks.

So Maryville has the oil bug. Guess it must be all right and many farmers would rather see the roads oiled than hard surfaced, believeing it would be better and a lot cheaper.

FARNELL SENTINEL

The Reise Construction Co., is progressing very nicely with the digging of the Platte Valley Drainage ditch. About 1350 feet had been dug up to last night north of Keever bridge. Louie Jacobs, night engineer, dug 150 feet Tuesday night, which is considered good work. It will only be a short time until they will be opposite town. Work is progressing much faster on the Platte Valley than on the Grand River ditch.

Coli Millikan is some fisherman as as some of the others around here. Tuesday night he caught a fine catfish weighing nine pounds. He shipped it to Milwaukee. Dr. Crowson, another professional fisherman, caught a brother to the above fish of the same weight and shipped it to St. Joseph last night.

Dr. Crowsen reports a 11 1-2 pound girl at Marshal and Sonstable James Griffey's Sunday. He also reports a boy at the home of Albert Mart of Orrsburg June 27, and a boy at the home of Joe Messner Thursday.

"Sport" Jordan won first prize at the Fillmore "Round-Up" Monday and Tuesday of this week. The prize consisted of a pair of gold surs and gold bridle bit, valued at $75.00. There were eight contestants and they rode horses, mules and long horned steers. On account of the heavy rain Monday most of the events took place Tuesday, and the crowd on that day was estimated at 1500.

B. A. Jones returned Saturday from Canada where he had been looking after his string of horses. Ben says it is about as warm up there as it is down here.

B. F. Munford is still catching the big river catfish. One day last week he brought in a 16-pounder Uncle Frank beats them all.

A special meeting of the Woodmen will be held next Monday night for the purpose of conferring the degrees on one candidate.

ELMO REGISTÆR

The Government has granted to several soldiers of Elmo, and vicinity the maximum pension of $72 a month. Geo. M. Livengood is one of them. W. M. Johnston and William Colter are also on the list.

Elbert Brooks, a brother of Mrs. Bain of Elmo and an uncle of Fred Bain, arrived Saturday to visit his sister whom he had not seen for 47 years. Mr. Brook is a farmer at Rogersville, Tenn., and is making his first visit to the west. Mr. Brook was impressed with the fine fields of grain and corn here.

Ralph McGinty, son of the late Dr. McGinty and Mrs. McGinty, has been discharged from the U. S. Navy and arrived home last Friday. He had not previously had a furlough and was discharged before his term expired. He was in the far east, China, the Phillipines and other parts of the Orient.

BURLINGTON JUNCTION POST

The Burlington Junction band made a decided hit at the Hopkins celebration on Monday, and many compliments were paid the boys for their excellent playing.

It was openly stated by a number of people from the county seat that the local band is, without question, the best in the country. The boys gave one of the best concerts of the season here last Saturday evening, and were given hearty applause following each selection. Another good program is promised for Saturday evening of this week by Conductor Minter

Maurice Murphy suffered a badly sprained ankle Wednesday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Murphy, northwest of town He was harnessing the animal and evidently was not doing the job to suit him. No bones were broken, but Maurice will be obliged to use a crutch for several days on account of the injury.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce band report someone, from week to week, has been disfiguring the band stand in various ways, and state that this parctice must be stopped. At times some of the wiring has been removed, cleats and supports have been taken away, and the stand in other ways disfigured.

This practice must stop, the boys say, or steps will be taken to prosecute the persons guilty of defacing the stand.

COULD NOT KEEP HOUSE

Without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Says Mrs. Pitts of Newburgh

Newburgh, N. Y.—"My trouble was a weak back and I could not walk two blocks without being tired out. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in a newspaper and decided to give it a trial. Now I can do my own work and walk with ease. I always keep the Vegetable Compound in the house. It certainly is my best friend and I could not keep house without it. I have recommended it to many and always shall. You may use this letter if you wish."—Mrs. EDWARD PITTS, 2 High St., Newburgh, N. Y.

It has been said that "backache is an invention of the Evil One to try women's souls," but even so, it is more often a symptom of a female trouble which sooner or later declares itself. Day after day it drags a woman down and night after night prevents restful sleep. Such woman should follow Mrs. Pitt's advice and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and regain health. Letters about your health will be given careful attention and held in strict confidence if you write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Their experience of over 40 years is at your service.

and maintained by state money.

Amendments Defeated.

An amendment to the bill by Senator Irwin to give the governor power to cut the salaries of employees of the highway commission, was defeated, as was an amendment providing for two crossroads in each county, regardless of whether they formed a state-wide connected system of 6,000 miles.

An amendment providing for work to begin in every county in the state on a ten mile stretch of road at as near the same time as practicable, was adopted. The bill originally provided that work be started in at least twenty places in the state.

An amendment also was adopted providing that when the commission takes over any road or part of any road in any county as a part of the state system, that the state refund to the county the money expended by the county in building the road, provided that refunded money be used as improvment of other roads in the county connecting with the state system.

The bill originally did not stipulate whether this take in all money expended on the road, including state and federal aid, or county money alone. When the senate adjourned a hot fight was being waged over an amendment by Senator Irwin limiting the salary of the chief highway engineer to $7,500 a year.

TIME IN SCHOOL IS TWO-THIRDS LOST

study he would read one book for a minute or two and then go to another until eventually he had skimmed over all of his lessons.

"At the beginning of the day the teacher led in the devotional exercises. Harvey listened attentively to the reading of a psalm, joined in the recitation of the Lord's Prayer, and two stanzas of "All things Beautiful." Then the teacher began to teach the third stanza of this poem. Immediately Harvey's attention lagged. The trouble was that the teacher mixed devotions with class exercises. She did not discriminate between them. The children were forced to remain standing all through this, and that naturally took away the spirit of the devotions. The teacher should have taught the third verse of "All Things Beautiful" in a class exercise period.

"There should be a certain time set for everything in school life. Just as a person should rise and eat and retire at a certain time, so should they study and recite and have recreation. Dissipated study is almost as bad as no study.

"In the English lesson Harvey had to read about Mount Olympus and the gods. He jumped right from a recitation in arithmetic where he studied simple interest into a study of the Greek Gods. There was no suggestion of the subject. The teacher should have brought up to the subject and then interest would have been aroused. As it was, no doubt, Harvey had no conception of what he was reading.

"In spelling he missed four words out of ten. When asked to define the words he missed, he could not. He was made to stay after school and learn their meaning. Had he been instructed rightly he would not have missed these words.

"Now this school was orderly. The deportment of the pupils was exceedingly good and everything was in order. No doubt if the school board had visited the school they would have said that it was excellent and that the teacher was very competent.

"I found that there were such schools every two miles. What that country needed was a consolidated school with more than one teacher, where the right principles would be used in teaching.

"The problem in the rural schools is greater than is known. That is why I am making this tour. We must do something to make the rural schools better educational centers."

Miss Lathrop spoke this afternoon to the school on the subject, "Why Teach School?"

Dr. Albert Edward Winship, editor of the New England School Journal, will speak at the college Tuesday morning. The University of Vermont conferred Dr. Winship the degree of L. L. D. in 1911. He was a member of the Massachuttes board of education from 1903 to 1909 and a delegate to the national convention in 1896. He is a charter member of Boston commercial club and a member of the Century and Boston City Club.

He is the author of "The Shop", "Life of Horace Mann," "Great American Educators", "Danger Signals" and "Educational Preparation."

An excellent cast is declared to support Miss Dalton in "A Romanitc Adventuress". Charles Meredith is the leading man, and other players are Augusta Anderson and Ivo Dawson. Harley Knoles directed.

On Wednesday and Thursday the feature attraction will be the picturization of Rex Beach's popular novel, 'Going Some", portrayed by an all star cast. No advance information is available on this picture, but the fact that it is a Rex Beach story is sufficient recommendation. There will also be a Sunshine comedy on Wednesday night and Pathe News and the serial Thursday night.

Billie Burke in the sprightly Paramount picture, "The Frisky Mrs. Johnson", will be the attraction Friday and Saturday. The adaptation was made by Lawrence McClosky and Edward Dillon was the director.

In this picture Miss Burke has an altogether new role, ont that displays her more serious rather than her lighter qualities. She is a fascinating American widow, who is known in Paris as "frisky". and the story concern her efforts to save her sister from disgrace, even at the risk of losing the man she loves.

Needless to say, Miss Burke wears some of the most attractive Parisian gowns ever seen on the screen. Ward Crane is leading man.

AT THE ELECTRIC

As its special feature attraction for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday "The Greatest Love", a Select Picture starring Vera Gordon, noted delineator of "mother" parts for the screen. While the dominating theme is mother love, the arrest and conviction of the son on circumstantial evidence lends a gripping suspense to be the plot which is maintained to the end.

With the story opening in the steerage of a transatlantic liner, later showing the family settled in the Ghetto during the first years of their life in America and their subsequent removal to a fasionable neighborhood in New York City, there is a diversity of scenes and characters which greatly adds to the interest of this excellent picture.

In this new story of mother love and sacrifice Vera Gordon has even greater scope than she had in "Humoresque", where her characterization of the mother was the feature of the piece. She is supported by a cast of well known players, including Bertram Marburg, Fannie Shelton, Hugh Huntley, William H. Tooker, Ray Dean, Donald Hall, Cally Crute, Jessie Simpson and Babby Watson. In the arly scenes Bobby Connelly and Dot Williams play the parts of little immigrant children with the children of all nations in the fetters of a convent and seeks advenism via the public schools.

"The Marriage of Wm. Ashe", which will be the feature attraction Thursday and Friday, was adapted from Mrs. Humphrey Ward's novel of the same name which Margaret Mayo dramatized for the speaking stage. The picture portrays Miss Allison in the role of a high-strung young English girl who breaks the fetters of a convent and seeks edaventure in the city of London.

Miss Allison gave a siprited performance of the English maid who married a member of the British Parliament. He work throughout the picture was characterized by a rare charm that was never quite lost sight of even in the moments of tense drama which abound in the latter part of the picture. For when Ashe discovers that Lady Kitty has apparently entered into collusion with Cliffe, a member of the opposition party, the scenes between husband and wife are fraught with conflict.

Leaving the convent in which she has been placed by her parents, Kitty Bristol goes to London, where she meets and marries William Ashe, Secretary for Home Affairs in the British Cabinet. Cliffe, who is a clever unscrupulous man, influences Lady Kitty to publish a book that will expose certain secrets of the British Ministry. The discovery of this by Ashe leads to his wife's leaving him and their final reconciliation.

A good story with a swiftly moving plot, a popular star, gorgeous settings and lavish costumes are promised in the new Elaine Hammerstein picture, "The Girl from Nowhere," which will be the featured attraction Saturday.

The story tells of a wealthy and beautiful daughter of society, Mavis Cole, who becomes infatuated with Herbert Whitman, a society rotter, who induces Mavis to elope with him. But before they can be married Mavis learns of Whitman's poor character and takes refuge in a hunting lodge buried in the snow-covered hills.

Alone and wearily, she is surprised by the caretaker, who demands to know why she is trespassing on seriousness of her predicament prompts her to state that she is the wife of Jimmy Ryder, whereupon much to her surprise, Ryder himself appears on the scene and in a spirit of chivalry he confirms the claim.

From this strange predicament the story winds through a maze of strange situations and eventually leads Mavis to the happiness she had sought in the beginning.

In "The Girl from Nowhere", William B. Davidson plays the leading male role, while Huntley Gordon is the "heavy". George Archainbaud directed.

WARREN APPOINTED TOKIO AMBASSADOR

PRESIDENT MUCH RELIEVED TO GET THIS POST FILLED

BELGIAN PLACE IS OPEN

Editor, College Presidents, Lawyers, Business Men Comprise Harding's Staff of Diplomats

Washington, July 8.—With the appointment of Charles B. Warren, of Michigan, as Ambassador to Japan, President Harding has put the bulk of his foreign appointments behind him, and the conduct of American affairs abroad for the next few momentous years at least has been shifted to shoulders other than his.

It was a great relief for President Harding to get the Tokio post filled. It was generally regarded as the most important appointment the President would have to make in the diplomatic corps, because of the delicacy of Japanese-American relations and the great number of problems of an irritating nature which the new Ambassador to Japan will be called upon to face. It is no secret in Washington that the President worried not a little over filling the Tokio post.

Up to to-day the Harding administration has made seven major diplomatic appointments since it came into office four months ago. It is interesting to look at them en bloc. Two editors, two college presidents, one lawyer and two lawyer-business men comprise the chief figures of the Harding diplomatic force. They are:

Great Britain—Colonel George McClellan Harvey, of New York, editor.

France—Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, lawyer-business man.

Japan—Charles B. Warren, of Michigan, lawyer.

Italy—Richard Washburn Child, of Massachusetts, editor.

China—Jacob Gould Schurman, of New York, college president.

Chile—William Miller Collier, of Washington, college president.

Spain—Cyrus E. Woods, of Pennsylvania, lawyer-business man.

Outside of the countries with which the United States is still at war, or with which its relations are only partially existent, there remain only a few Ambassadorial appointments to be made, although there are a number in the legation class.

Belgium is yet to be filled. Brand Whitlock, beloved by the Belgians, is reported to be very anxious to return home at the earliest opportunity and it is probable that his wishes will be complied with by President Harding, although there is reason to believe that the President would be entirely willing to leave his popular fellow Ohioan in Brussels if he would stay.

Argentina, where Frederic Jessup Stimson holds forth; Brazil, where Edwin V. Morgan remains over from the old administration, and Peru, now occupied by William E. Gonzales, are among the more important posts which the President has yet to fill. American affairs in none of these are pressing, however, and the administration probably will take its time in replacing those now there.

Despite the never decreasing clamor for appointments, President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes have no intention of replacing a number of American ministers now abroad, according to those familiar with the appointment situation. This applies particularly to those younger members of the American diplomatic set who have "come up from the ranks and won their spurs through long and arduous work in minor capacities in the service—men like William Phillips, former Assistant Secretary of State and now American Minister to the Netherlands; Joseph C. Grew, who used to be First Secretary at Berlin in Gerard's hectic days there, now at Copenhagen; Hugh Gibson, at Warsaw; Peter Augustus Jay, at Bucharest, and others.

All of these Ministers are comparatively young men, although considerably experienced, and the President and Secretary Hughes are inclined to the policy that if a real American diplomatic corps is to be set up the men who have won their places on merit must be let alone and not subjected to the winds of political change every four years. Some of them may be shifted about, but there is no intention at present of demoting them in rank no rof dispensing with their services.
